

Impaired Driving Statistics

- In 2008, it was estimated that 12.4% of persons ages 12 and older drove under the influence of alcohol at least once during the year
- In 2008, 11,773 people were killed in alcohol-impaired driving crashes. This was roughly 1/3 of all traffic related deaths in the United States
- The under 20 years old age group had the highest proportion of distracted drivers
- In the US, someone is killed in an alcohol-impaired car crash every 50 minutes
- At least 3 people under 21 years old die each day in alcohol-impaired crashes

What will you STANDD
for?

STANDD
Smart Thinking and Never Drunk Driving

